

The Speaker: Rev Joel Heron

Pastor Joel is from Michigan in the USA and has been a pastor in The Wesleyan Church for 30 years. During that time, he has served in many and various ministry roles: children, students, young adults, evangelism, assimilation & connections, discipleship & small groups, teaching pastor, and lead pastor. His experience with churches has primarily been with larger churches (500 and above).

In 2016, Pastor Joel and his wife of 28 years were divorced. After hundreds of hours of counselling his ex chose to separate and divorce him. Since Feb '17, Joel has been the lead pastor of Axis Church in North Lakes, QLD. Axis is a more than a local church. It is a movement in The Wesleyan Church of Australia that is intent on church planting & revitalisation as well as being a lighthouse for Christ in its community and beyond.

Joel has two children (his joy & delight): Mackenzie, who serves as a nurse in Denver, Colorado & Austin, who studies business entrepreneurship at Central Michigan University

Counsellor

Michelle Stott was born in Victoria. Therefore she believes Aussie Rules is real football! (She is a part time Magpie fan!)

Since moving to Queensland, she has completed a Master of Counselling. She has enjoyed working with a variety of people, ages and backgrounds, including children, adults, people with disabilities, and the elderly. Personal growth, self-esteem & identity, bullying, suffering & grief & loss, are some of the issues she addresses.

She loves the way Jesus demonstrates God's concern for the disadvantaged. As a single, Michelle is passionate about the value of Christian singles. She believes the church, needs to cherish singles, remembering that many godly people from biblical times and throughout history were singles,
