The Speaker

MRS ANDREA DONALDSON

Andrea was born in Melbourne Australia, the youngest of two children. She grew up in Melbourne & Sydney. She came to know Jesus through a local church Youth Group at age 15.

Andrea began her working career as an Occupational Therapist at Royal Talbot Rehabilitation Hospital in Kew, Victoria. Her role as a neurological rehabilitation therapist began a lifelong fascination with the human brain and the way it works. Over her extensive career she has reinvented herself in many diverse settings including Aged Rehabilitation, Community Health in multicultural Coburg and in Aged Care Assessment. Her current job is as a Dementia Consultant with Dementia Support Australia under the auspice of Hammond Care : A Christian Charity.

Taking a year off to travel to Sierra Leone, West Africa from April 1986 to April 1987 helped her to define her passion for working across cultures. In this voluntary position she worked in a remote church run hospital in Kamakwie in north Sierra Leone.

To this day her attraction to understanding human behaviour has empowered her practice as an accredited business and personal coach/facilitator with Intercept.

Andrea's desire is to see people bring about lasting positive change to their lives through the powerful insights she shares with them. Her occupational therapy background means she knows how to promote self-reliance and independence in her clients.

Andrea's proven leadership development skills and positive future focus make her impact on clients who are open and willing outstanding and long lasting.

Andrea is married to Wes and together they have adopted three siblings from Ethiopia (the topic of her first book 'Travelling Home') and they live in Skye Victoria and worship at St David's Parkdale Uniting.

Our Counsellors!!

This year we will again have the services of Simon & Pat Murray who were counsellors last year. Their gentleness, empathy and honesty will bless many on camp.
