The Speaker's

Pastor Anthony and Sela Kumitau are from Tonga and Niue Island in the Pacific. They have been happily married for 30 years with one beautiful married daughter named Hulita.

Pastor Anthony works fulltime as a truck driver during the week and church ministry on Wednesday, and Friday evenings also of course in weekend. They are the Pastors of the Crossroads Wesleyan Methodist Church in Adelaide.

They have a heart for Encouragement, empowering believers, teaching the Word of God and praying for healing upon the sick. Pastor Anthony also loves to be involved in the worship team that Club Solo has experienced on the Monday's of our past Adelaide Camps.

They are fully committed to the calling of God where there is an opportunity to share God's Word they are more than happy to share His Gospel in season and out of season.

Our Counsellor Was One of Our Own!

Melanie Moore may be known to you as Melanie Lamb, a past Solo participant. Melanie is one year off completed her Master of Counselling, She will be available as Camp Counsellor to offer you support. Melanie is married to Russell, she is a minister in the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne and a Palliative Care Chaplain. Melanie enjoys walking in God's beautiful creation and has recently taken up crocheting to relax. Melanie is also on the board of Open House, a place where all people can come along and belong and be unconditionally loved and supported.
