The Speaker: Andrea Donaldson

Andrea grew up in Melbourne and Sydney, Australia.

Andrea began her working career as an Occupational Therapist at Royal Talbot Rehabilitation Hospital in Kew, Victoria. Her role as a neurological rehabilitation therapist began a lifelong fascination with the human brain and the way it works.

Over her extensive career she has reinvented herself in many diverse settings including Aged Rehabilitation, Community Health in multicultural Coburg, in Aged Care Assessment and recently in Dementia Behaviour Support.

Taking a year off to travel to Sierra Leone, West Africa from April 1986 – April 1987 helped her to define her passion for working across cultures. In this voluntary position she worked in a remote church run hospital in Kamakwie in north Sierra Leone.

Andrea's desire is to see people bring about lasting positive change to their lives through the powerful and godly insights she shares with them. Her love of journaling to reflect, translates into practical steps for others to follow. Her proven leadership development skills and positive future focus make her impact on people who are open and willing, outstanding and long lasting.

Andrea worships and serves at TurningPoint Church in Cranbourne Victoria with her husband Wes and now works in the Disability Sector. She is passionate about essential oils and their role in health and wellness, as the God given plants that "are for the healing of the nations".
