

The Speaker: Dr Alan Meyer

Allan was called to become the first Youth Pastor of Life Ministry Centre in 1978. Later he was called to Mt Evelyn Church of Christ as Senior Minister in 1983, which became known as Careforce Church. He led Careforce Church in Melbourne for 26 years.

Careforce Church was a national leader amongst Australian churches in promoting restoration and pastoral care. Careforce Church also developed a world-changing ministry in India known as Christian Outreach Ministry.

During their ministry, Allan, and his wife Helen, co-founded Care Force Life Keys, devoted to creating resources for leadership development, discipleship, church health, pastoral care and evangelism. Their passion is encouraging churches to embrace their calling as healing and restoring communities. Lifekeys courses have been translated into many languages. Allan now devotes himself full time to coaching and encouraging churches to function as restoring communities.

His doctorate with Denver Seminary involved the creation of the Valiant Man Program – focused on fortifying and restoring the moral and spiritual integrity of men. Allan regularly addresses audiences on the big issues facing men today. Over 100,000 men have engaged with the Valiant Man program in Australia and NZ and untold numbers around the world.

Counsellor

Anne Spoelder will be our counsellor. She has many years' experience in caring for and walking alongside others, particularly single adults and single parents. Anne brings both wisdom and a deeply compassionate heart to every person with whom she meets. Anne's role throughout our week together will be to offer support, understanding, and gentle guidance to those navigating relationships, loss, new beginnings & everything in between! Anne wants to be able to offer God's kindness, warmth, and a genuine love for people, as they share their story with her and with others throughout the week. Her prayer is that she can listen to and help those who attend Club Solo camp to feel at ease, and valued.
